

NOMINATION FORM
THE JOHN R. FINNEGAN FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) AWARD
OR
THE JOHN BORGER LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Presented by the Minnesota Coalition on Government Information (MNCOGI)

Each year MNCOGI celebrates Freedom of Information Day by presenting the John R. Finnegan Freedom of Information award and the John Borger Lifetime Achievement award in the spirit of Mr. Finnegan's and Mr. Borger's demonstrated leadership and commitment to the freedom of information and its power to effect change. Each award may be given to individuals or organizations. MNCOGI may give either a John R. Finnegan FOI award, a John Borger Lifetime Achievement Award, or both for any given award year.

The MNCOGI Board selects the award recipients. This form must be used to make a nomination; it is also available online, <https://mncogi.org/finnegan-foi-award/>. Please address any statements that are relevant to your nominee in a submission of up to 3 pages. Please provide contact information below for both the nominator and the nominee. If you have questions, email [contact \[at\] mncogi.org](mailto:contact@mncogi.org). All nominations must be received by the end of Monday, February 7, 2022.

Date of Nomination: _____

Nomination is for _____ Finnegan FOI Award OR _____ Borger Lifetime Achievement Award

Name and preferred means of contact (email, phone, street address) of nominator

Name and preferred means of contact (email, phone, street address) of nominee

Tell the MNCOGI Board how your nominee has achieved any or all of the following:

1. Advocated for the public's right to know via legislative, administrative or other policies;
2. Used technology and other means to facilitate access to government information;
3. Educated the public on the importance of freedom of information;
4. Took action to assure that government and other institutions comply with the law and policies that maximize transparency;
5. Operated a library, government agency, organization or other institutions in a manner that afforded the greatest possible access to government information;
6. Challenged forms of authority that thwart the objective of assuring the existence of an informed electorate through access to government information;
7. Found ways to link the idea of freedom of information to the Bill of Rights and especially to the First Amendment; AND/OR,
8. Made a substantial, sustained or lasting contribution to open government in Minnesota.

Thank you for your nomination.

Award recipient(s) will be announced prior to the award ceremony.